

“Transforming Adult Social Care for the 21st Century: Implementing Individual Budgets”

Interactive Voting Session:
Please use your Keypad to Vote on the Following Questions

Do you think that individualised budgets will impact positively on the lives of older people?

1. Yes
2. No

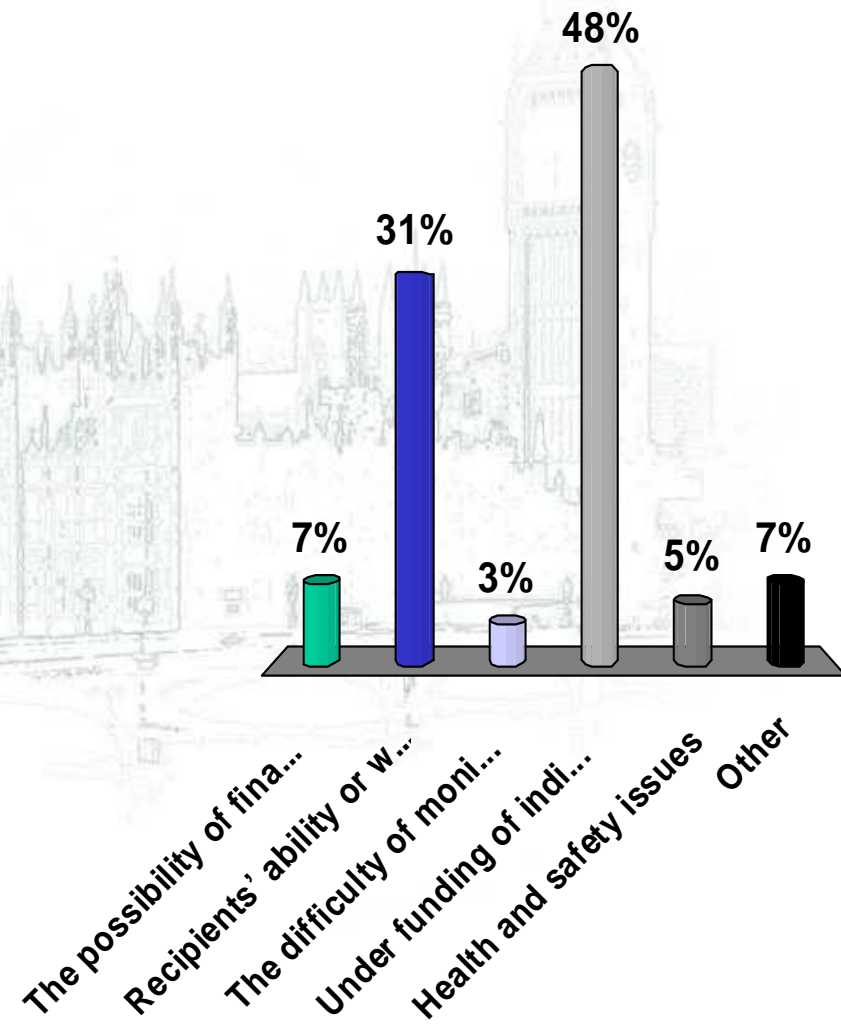

Do you think the majority of older people want individualised budgets?

1. Yes
2. No

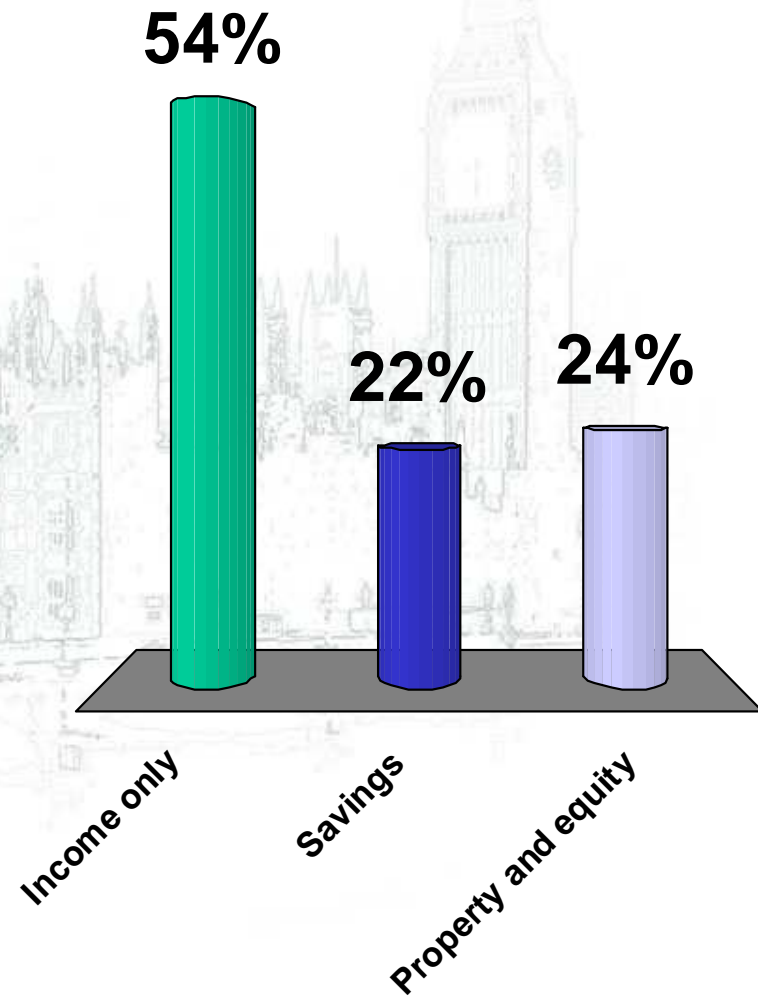

What aspect of the development of individualised budgets do you worry most about?

1. The possibility of financial abuse
2. Recipients' ability or willingness to manage service delivery
3. The difficulty of monitoring arrangements
4. Under funding of individualised budgets
5. Health and safety issues
6. Other

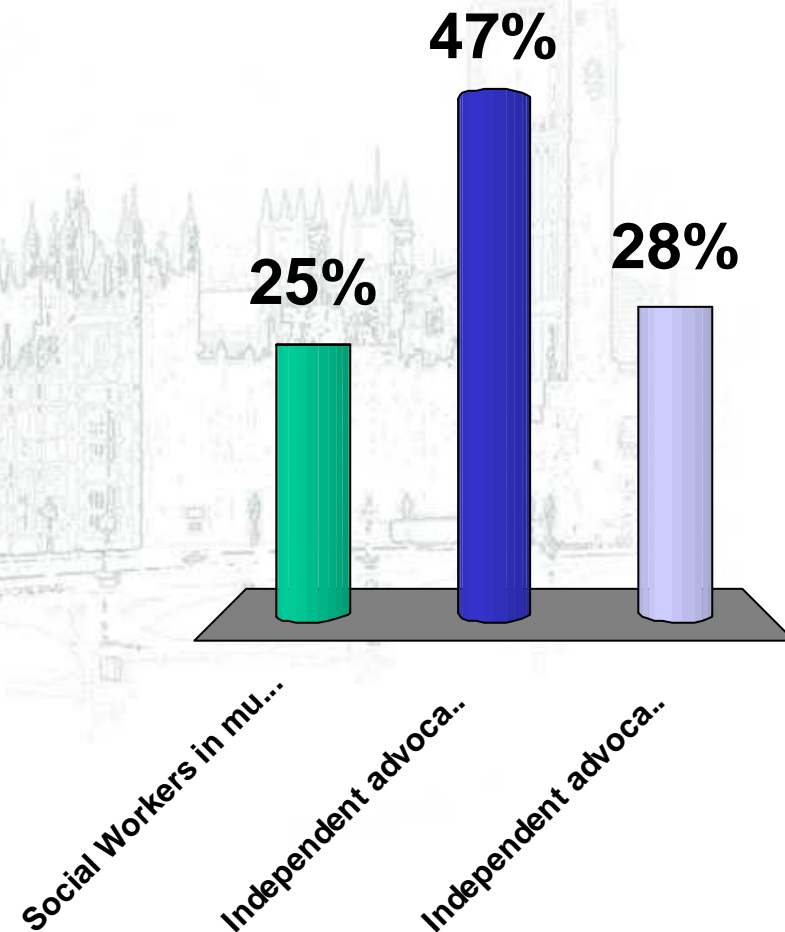

To what level should individuals contribute to the cost of social care at home?

1. Income only
2. Savings
3. Property and equity

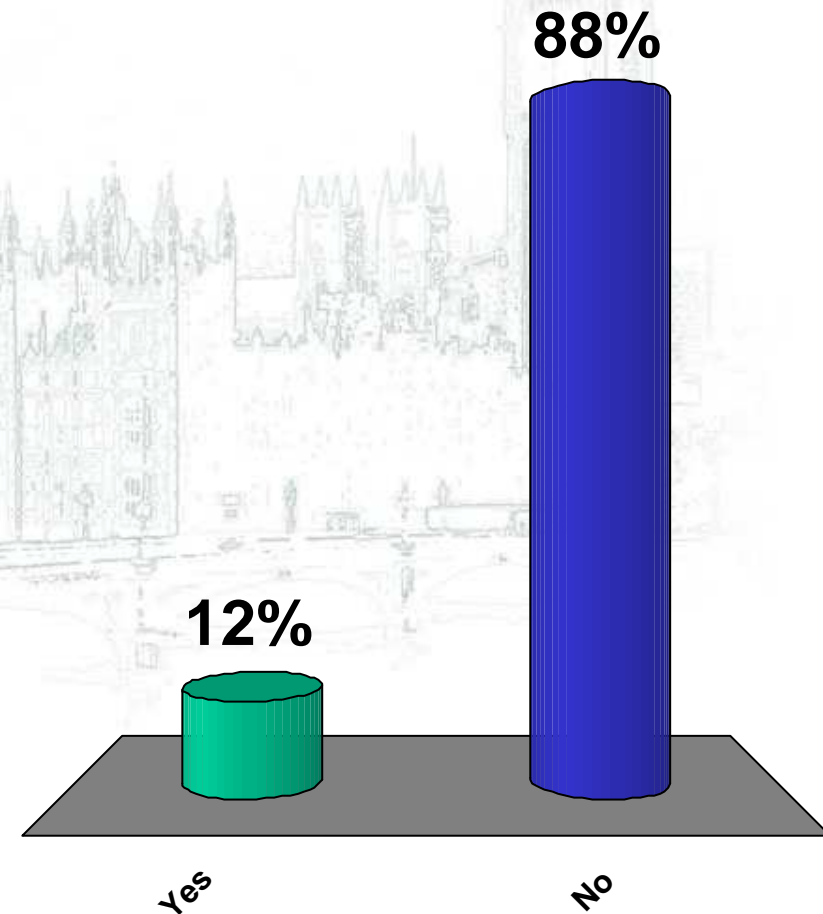

Who should be the navigators to guide people through the system?

1. Social Workers in multi disciplinary teams
2. Independent advocacy commissioned by local authorities
3. Independent advocacy purchased as part of a direct payment

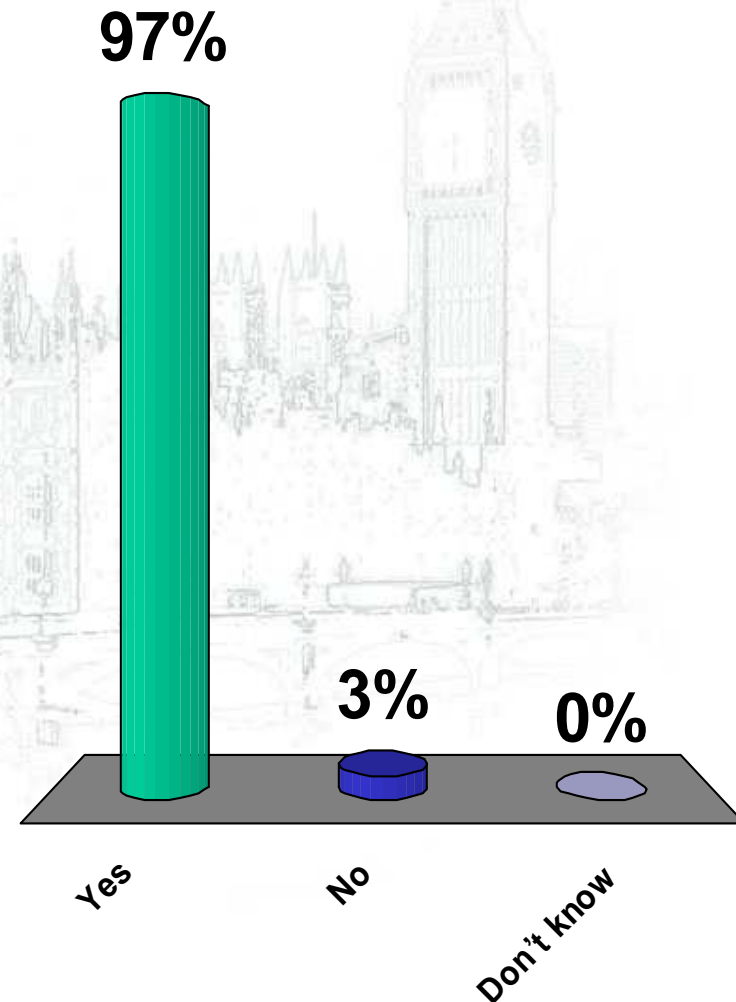

Is the market currently able to supply services that people on an individual budget wish to purchase?

1. Yes
2. No

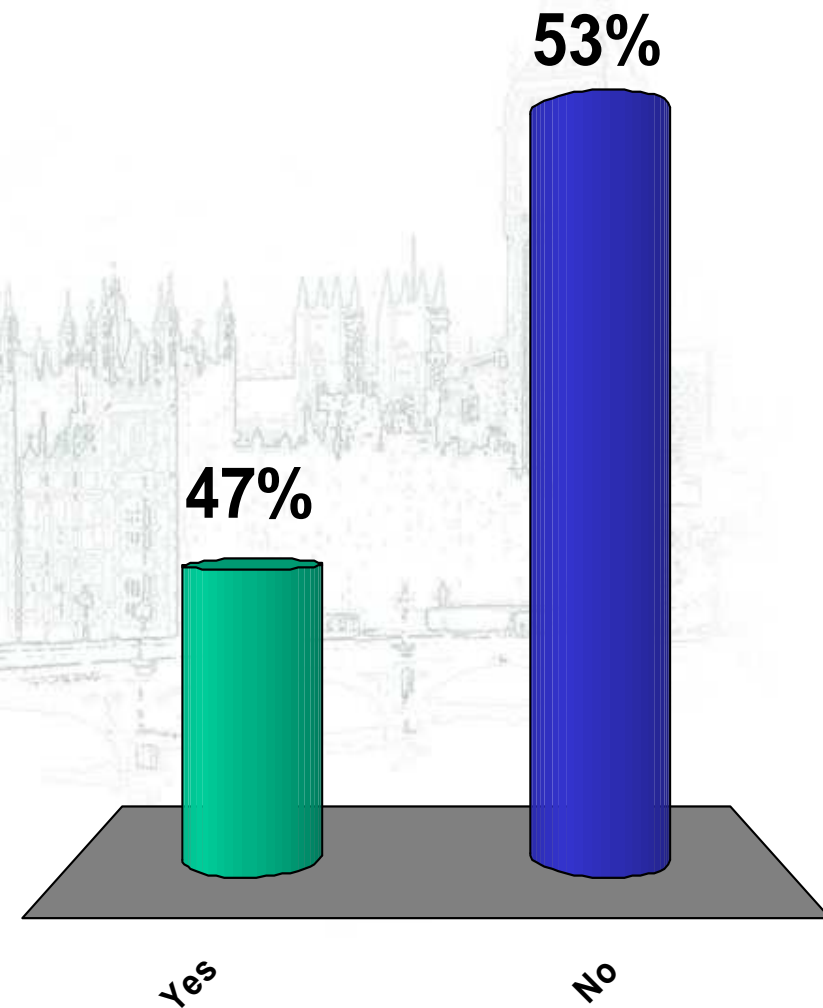

Could there be a conflict of role if a family member is both an appointee for managing the finances of an individual and is an employee of that individual under direct payment?

1. Yes
2. No
3. Don't know

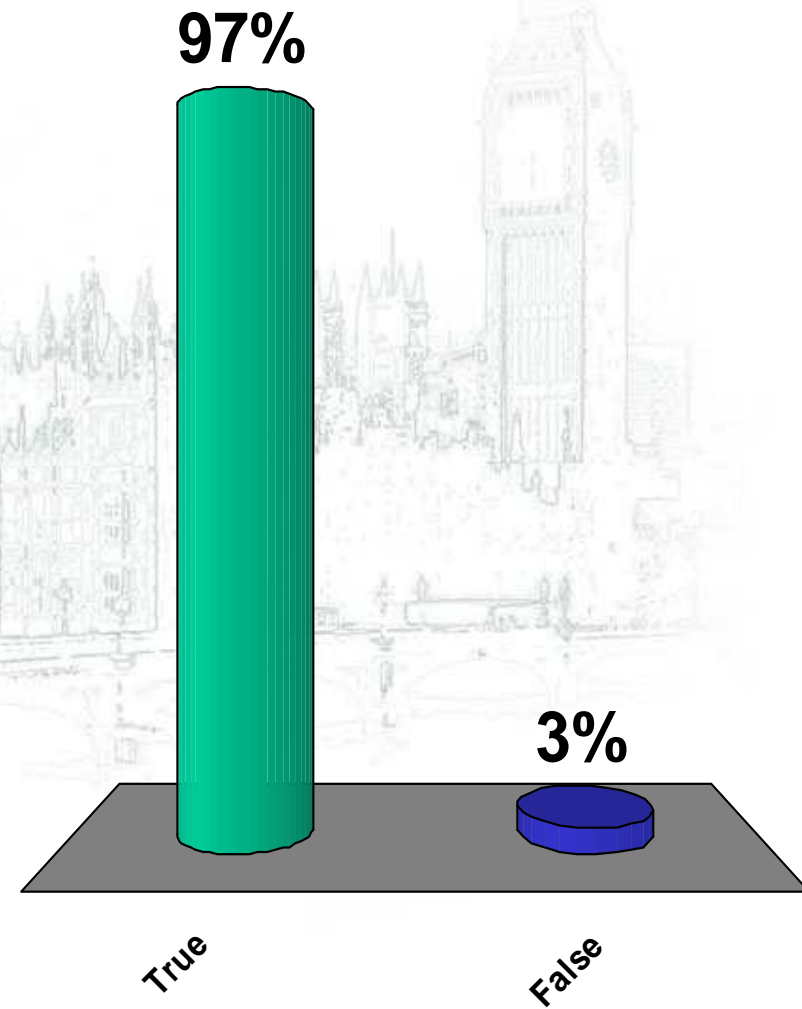

The market in social care should be free to grow itself?

1. Yes
2. No

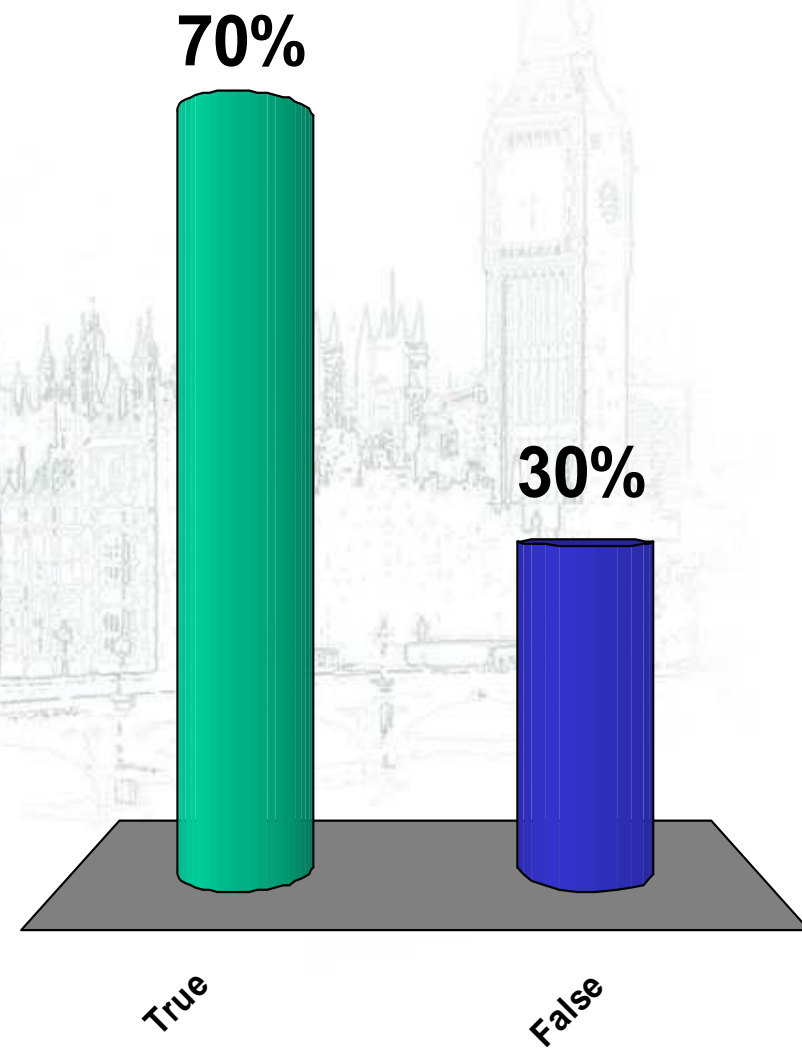

We have a duty to stimulate the market in social care to meet demand?

1. True
2. False

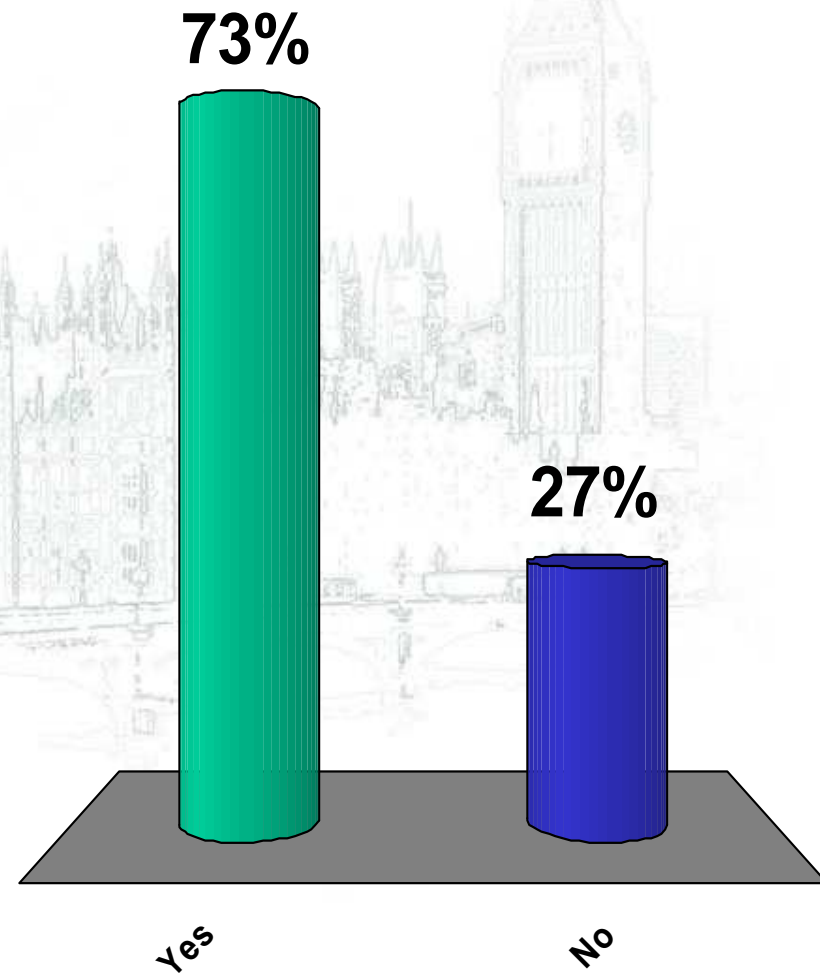

Entrepreneurs in social care are grown not made?

1. True
2. False

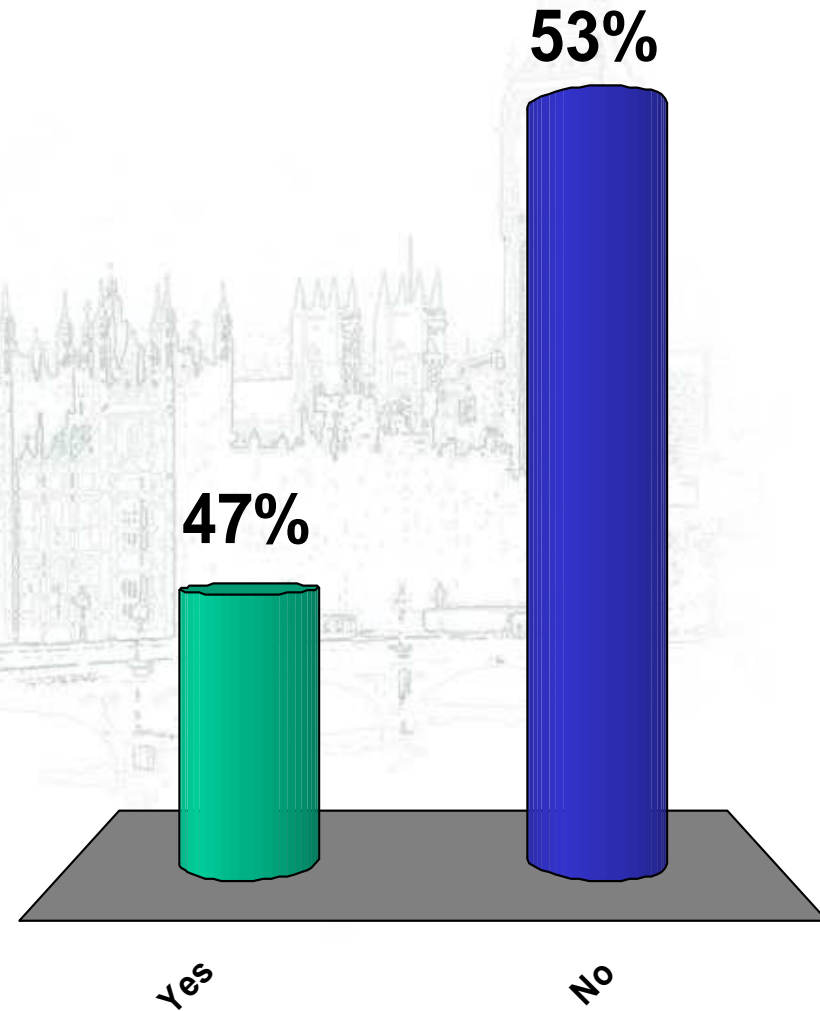

Is there a risk that some worthy service providers may suffer financially as a result of increased services user choice, to the detriment of the quality of the overall market place?

1. Yes
2. No

Is proscribed care given an unfairly negative image by initiatives such as personal budgets?

1. Yes
2. No

Do you think that individualised budgets will impact positively on the lives of older people?

1. Yes
2. No

