

#MeToo on Campus: Ending Sexual Misconduct in UK Universities

The event will take place in Central London (venue TBC) | Coming March 2019

09.15	Registration and refreshments
10.00	Chair's opening address Chair: GenPol (event partner) <ul style="list-style-type: none">Counteracting gender-based violence: policy solutions and educational practices at the local, national and supra-national level.
10.15 (1)	Plenary address: 'Government Action to Protect Women's Safety at University' <ul style="list-style-type: none">Overview of the policy landscapeWith whom does the duty to protect women lie?Recommendations from the W&EC: establishing an overarching body and monitoring systemNext steps for the UUK Taskforce
10.45 (2)	Panel: 'Changing the Culture: Sexual Harassment at University in a Post #MeToo Era' <ul style="list-style-type: none">Government and regulator strategies: prevention and reportingOfS projects, incentives & sanctionsPriorities in policy making: is it time to consider legislation?
11.45	Networking and refreshment break
12.00 (3)	Panel: 'The Power of Campaigns: Using Data and Activism to Reduce Sexual Violence Across Campus' <ul style="list-style-type: none">Handing back the power: giving a voice to student survivors of sexual violenceLearning from students and embedding their experiences in policy changesTransforming reporting data into prevention strategy
13.00	Lunch
14.00 (4)	Plenary address: 'Reporting and Responses: Civil and Criminal Legal Considerations' <ul style="list-style-type: none">Developing an effective disciplinary plan for staff and studentsHandling alleged student misconduct which may constitute a criminal offence
14.30 (5)	Closing panel: 'Best Practice in Training Staff and Students' <ul style="list-style-type: none">Redressing the power balance: approaches to tackling staff-student abuseThe Catalyst Funding: success storiesThe role of the Sexual Violence Liaison OfficerBystander intervention
15.30	Chair's closing remarks
15.45	Event finish