

#MeToo on Campus Manchester: Next Steps for Universities

The event will take place in Central Manchester | Wednesday 22 May 2019

09.15	Registration and refreshments
10.00	Chair's opening address Chair: Dr Lilia Giugni, Chief Executive Officer, GenPol (event partner) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Can education stop abuse?</li> </ul>
10.20	Understanding your students before changing the culture: case studies Dr Nina Burrowes, Founder, The Consent Collective <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Understanding survivors have a past and a future</li> <li>Recognising abuse in top performers and providing the right support</li> </ul>
11.00	Overcoming common failings in the way universities handle misconduct complaints Georgina Calvert-Lee, Senior Litigation Counsel, McAllister Olivarius <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Avoiding over-use of confidentiality</li> <li>Striking the balance between rights of the accused and the complainant</li> <li>Forms of 'justice' and including the complainant in the investigation journey</li> </ul>
11.40	Networking and refreshment break
11.50	Transforming the behaviours, attitudes and skills of men and boys Dr Dan Guinness, CEO, Good Lad Initiative <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Delivering evidence-based, pragmatic, relatable interventions</li> <li>Reaching men and boys not typically engaged in conversations about gender</li> <li>Working with groups and individuals of all genders &amp; backgrounds</li> </ul>
12.30	The importance of disclosure training and overcoming the challenges associated Speaker to be confirmed <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Best practice in Staff training on student disclosures of sexual assault</li> </ul>
13.10	Lunch
14.10	Intersectional issues in sexual misconduct: recognising the complexity of social identities Speaker to be confirmed <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Going beyond the 'system' and taking responsibility back to our communities</li> </ul>
14.40	Culture Shift: Report and Support Gemma McCall, Co-founder and Managing Director, Culture Shift <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Report and support: progress and success stories</li> <li>The importance of anonymous reporting</li> </ul>
15.20	Establishing a robust plan to combat harassment in your institution Vicki Baars, Strategy and Review Manager – Sexual Harassment, Goldsmiths University <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Overcoming funding challenges and gaining leadership buy-in</li> <li>Proaction, not reaction</li> </ul>
16.00	Chair's closing remarks